FRIDAY MARCH 15

If the Shriners don't like the rain let them admire the rainbows. There is always something worth while in these parts.

Celso Caesar Moreno may not be the best of witnesses at times but the essential truth of his Wilcox reminiscences is plain to most people who are at all familiar with the ins and outs of past Hawaiian politics.

The Speaker of the House opposed the Honolulu cable bill and for that reason it did not pass. The power of the Speaker is well-nigh absolute in such matters and this is not the first time Hawaii has suffered by it.

When the House of Representatives spends a goodly share of its time in wrangling over the spelling of the word "forty" its likeness to the Limekiln Club becomes really startling. "The Limekiln Legislature" may prove to be an adhesive phrase.

John E. Searles, the ruined magnate, was a bulwark of the sugar trust a few short years ago when the Hawaiian planters went to the Coast to confer with him. But speculation in sugar and other commodities has driven him to the wall in his old age. It is an impressive example of how even insiders may fare when they take risks in Wall street.

It is doubtful if the public advertising done here for two or three years past has brought a more desirable visitation than the Shriners. Certainly the results of the local Masonic effort exceed those which can be directly traced to Hawaii's exhibits at various fairs. The fact ought to encourage other local organizations to bring their over-sea brethren here. For instance, the Grand Army post might, if it tried, induce some hundreds of comrades to come here for a Memorial day and week observance.

The health of San Francisco is a matter in which Honolulu has reason to feel much concern and about which it can get no facts from the metropolitan newspapers. The press, under threat of the great exporting and importing houses of San Francisco, has entered into a conspiracy of silence, and although plagues might stalk at noonday the papers would say nothing. What news Honolulu gets comes in dribbles and through private correspondence and ordinary word of mouth. The latest data from San Francisco is of special importance in that it reveals the existence of a smallpox epidemic there and of the continuation of the bubonic plague. It is even suggested that Honolulu's plague of last year came from San Francisco. Such a possibility should inspire the greatest vigilance here among the Federal health authorities.

GOOD SPORT IS IN SIGHT

R. A. Jordan, the new captain of the Honolulu Cricket Club, states that the Warspite men will play both cricket and association football matches with local elevens while in port. Lieutenant Bromley is manager of the flagship's athletic teams. The big boat is expected to leave here on Saturday week.

The Honolulu team pitted against the British eleven is made up as follows: Goal, Fenwick; backs, McGill and R. Anderson; halves, Blackman, Bottomly, and Craig; forwards, Morse, Goulie, Boyle, Davies and Cotton. Referee, D. W. Anderson. Linesmen, J. Cumming and ——. The kick-off will be at 5 p. m. sharp.

A game of football will very probably be played at Makiki this afternoon and another next Tuesday. Next Thursday will be cricket day. On account of torpedo practice no Saturday games will be played. The cricket team of the visitors is said to be a strong one but the "softer" aggregation will be handicapped by the sickness of two of the members.

This season a trophy will probably be provided for the winners of the series of Married against Single matches.

An agitation is on foot among local sportsmen to try and induce the business houses of the City to close their doors at noon on Saturday and to allow no one to work after the doors are closed, as is now the case.

The practice of keeping open business establishments on Saturday afternoons has spoiled sport in Honolulu for several years. In Queensland it is compulsory to close up on one afternoon of each week, and sport and athletics flourish there accordingly. A petition to the above effect will be circulated shortly. The Maile Ilima Athletic Club held a training run last night in view of their three-mile race to be held early in April.

MUCH ACTIVITY AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The Workers' Bible Class will meet tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Oatts passed through Honolulu on the Mowara on their way to the Coast. Mr. Oatts was formerly general secretary of the Glasgow association, a position which he held for upwards of twenty years.

When he left the Glasgow association he was presented with a purse of $4,000. During the past sixteen months Mr. and Mrs. Oatts have been traveling around the world in the interests of the National Colonial Council of the London association. They visited the local institution yesterday and declared themselves well pleased with it.

The examination of the "educational" classes will be held next week and all the members are working hard in preparation thereof.

The exhibit to be sent to the Boston convention will, it is expected, be ready in time to be shown at the annual meeting of the association to be held in April.

Baseball practice will commence next Tuesday at 5 o'clock on the parade ground, and will continue till dark. Those interested in the formation of a team are requested to turn up to practice on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

On Saturday evening the Emeralds will oppose the Stars in the basketball league games at 7:30 o'clock. At 8:15 o'clock Intermediates and Business Men will play.

Tomorrow morning the Juniors will enjoy an automobile excursion to Kapolani Park.

Miss Lawrence, Miss Barrett, Miss Barlow and Mrs. Hitchcock were responsible for the success of the entertainment, while Mr. Waldron took charge of the whole affair.

The following program was rendered: Chorus, Kindergarten teachers and assistants. Solo, Miss Helen Desha. Shadow Pictures; ballad, Merry Jane. Solo, Lena Rosewarne. Reading, Miss Helen Kahaleahu. Recitation, Silas Perry. Farce, The Fox and the Rabbits. "Aloha Oe," Sextet.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia.

It makes life miserable.

Its sufferers eat not because they WANT to—but simply because they MUST.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph F. Laine, Planagan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."
